Dublin, GA 31021

Dear William Curry, CPM

Congratulations! Curry Management Corp., AMO has been officially approved as an Accredited Management Organization® (AMO®).

The AMO sets the standard in property management firm excellence and Curry Management Corp., AMO has proven to demonstrate the highest standards of professionalism, financial performance, and ethics. A truly sought-after accreditation, to which over 500 firms currently hold.

As the Executive CPM®, we commend you for completing the coursework and serving as an ambassador for IREM within your firm. We encourage you to promote your accreditation on your website, profiles, letterhead, etc. You now have access to the official logo when you log into www.irem.org/memberlogos, with the AMO firm log in provided at the time of your approval.

In addition, we are happy to offer employees of your firm the IREM member rate on our certification courses, accelerator skill-building courses, and much more. We're also happy to provide additional private education offerings for your firm as you continue to explore IREM.

Along with this letter you'll find an official press release template you can use to distribute and promote the new accreditation.

Congratulations again on this achievement. We look forward to serving as a partner in the real estate management industry. If there's anything more we can do for you, please contact amo@irem.org or 800-837-6052.

Sincerely,

Renee M. Savage, CPM®
